The meeting was called to order at 9:00.

The minutes of the March 05, 2015 meeting were approved.

Mark Ferguson asked for candidates for the upcoming CLAS elections.

Janet Hankin discussed the changes to the Applied M.A. program in Sociological Research Methodology. The revised program proposal was approved.

Marick Masters discussed the change in program name from B.A. in Labor Studies to B.A. in Employment and Labor Relations. The revision was approved.

Anne Duggan and Lisabeth Hock discussed the proposed B.A. in Global Studies, which was approved.

Janet Hankin, along with Victoria Neale and Kimberly Campbell-Voytal of Family Medicine, discussed the proposed B.S. in Public Health. There were concerns about reporting lines, required resources, and where the program would be housed, but Hankin spoke of the high demand for such a program and Wayne Raskind noted again our need for more students. The proposal was approved.

The meeting adjourned at 10:30.
