

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Faculty Council Meeting
November 03, 2011

Members Present: Allen Goodman, Mark Ferguson, renee hoogland, Charles Parrish, Geoff Nathan, John Klein, Larry Lombard, Eric Lambert, Ed Golenberg, Elizabeth Lublin, Pramod Khosla, Boris Baltes

Attending: Donald Haase, Christine Chow, Caroline Brzuchowski, Paul Clemens, Joe Rankin, Robert Thomas, Marvin Zalman, Joe Kieleszewski

Absent With Notice: Marsha Richmond, Fred Pearson, Mary Cay Sengstock, Anne Duggan, Markus Friedrich, Claudio Verani

The meeting was called to order at 9:30.

The minutes of the October 06, 2011 meeting were approved.

Mark Ferguson sought names for the Distinguished Faculty Awards. He also noted that the recent meeting between the faculty and the dean's search committee was not well attended.

Joe Rankin presented the lists of nominees for the CLAS Judiciary Hearing Panels. The lists—one of students, one of faculty—were approved.

Marvin Zalman presented the proposal for a concurrent Law and Master of Science in Criminal Justice degree. The proposal passed.

John Klein asked about the status of computer replacements for faculty. Joe Kieleszewski said that, given the budgetary constraints, the college was looking for ways to fund the replacements.

The meeting adjourned at 10:10.