Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology

Major Requirements

A minimum of 34 credits are required for Anthropology majors. Students must receive a grade of a “C” or better in all required courses. A minimum of 15 credits must be taken in residence. Choice of cognate courses must be discussed with faculty in the Department of Anthropology.

Advising

Students interested in a major or minor in the Anthropology department should consult the Anthropology department advisor. Appointments are scheduled online via AdvisingWorks.

Students are urged to consult with a department advisor each term before selecting courses for the following term.

Prerequisites to the Major:

None

Major Requirements:

- ANT 2100 - Introduction to Anthropology (3 credits)
  o Offered Every Term
- ANT 2110 - Introduction to Physical Anthropology (3 credits)
  o Typically Offered Every Term
- ANT 3020 – Introduction to Archaeology (3 credits)
  o Offered in the Fall
- ANT 3100 – World Cultures (3 credits)
  o Offered in the Winter
- ANT 3310 – Language & Culture (3 credits)
  o Offered in the Fall
- ANT 5210 – Anthropological Methods (4 credits)
  o Offered in the Fall & Winter
- ANT 5380 – History of Anthropology (3 credits)
  o Offered in the Fall
- ANT 5996 – Capstone Seminar in Anthropology (3 credits)
  o Offered in the Winter
  o Must be taken in residence o Must be paired with ANT 5993 (Writing Intensive)
- 3 Anthropology Electives (ANT 2100 – 6999) - (9 credits)
  o Complete list of Electives available in Undergraduate Bulletin

It is each student’s responsibility to learn the requirements, policies, and procedures governing the program they are following and to act accordingly. Students should consult the Anthropology Department Advisor regularly in order to verify that Anthropology requirements are being met in a timely fashion. Although the advisor will provide assistance, the responsibility for fulfilling degree requirements remains with the student.