Do you wish to gain skills to strengthen your community? To engage in activities to help revitalize Detroit? To be connected to professional networks, internships and employment opportunities while also getting your master’s degree? To check out a promising career path?

Find out how at Wayne State’s Urban Planning Open House!

TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 3-6 PM
FACULTY ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, 3RD FL. ATRIUM (By Elevators)

Who should come: Graduating seniors interested in cities, community development, and the urban environment—i.e., from history, economics, anthropology, political science, public administration, sociology, criminal justice, social work, business, engineering, environmental studies, etc.—and rising seniors (with 90 plus credits), juniors, and others with similar interests.

The Open House is hosted by the Department of Urban Studies and Planning. For more information, write dusp@wayne.edu or call 313-577-2701.

Light refreshments will be available. Please RSVP to DUSP@wayne.edu clas.wayne.edu/DUSP