

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE IN MATHEMATICAL ECONOMICS

The purpose of this program is to provide rigorous training in mathematics and economics for students whose career goals require a high level of technical proficiency in these subjects. The program should greatly benefit students who intend to pursue a career immediately after graduation in economic analysis, statistics, finance, operations research, underwriting or actuarial science, or do graduate work in economics, finance or applied mathematics.

CAREERS IN THIS FIELD

- ◆ Economic Analyst
- ◆ Underwriter
- ◆ Actuary
- ◆ Budget Analyst
- ◆ Bank Officer
- ◆ Credit Analyst
- ◆ Investment Analyst
- ◆ International Trade Specialist

For more information, contact the Department of Economics and/or Mathematics:

Department of Economics
2074 FAB, 656 W. Kirby St.
Detroit, MI 48202
(313) 577-3345

Department of Mathematics
1150 FAB, 656 W. Kirby St.
Detroit, MI 48202
(313) 577-2479