English Graduate Courses (ENG) Revised 8/12/2018

The following courses, numbered 5000-9999, are offered for graduate credit. Courses numbered 5000-6999 which are offered for undergraduate credit only may be found in the undergraduate bulletin, as well as all other undergraduate courses (numbered 0900-4999). Courses in the following list numbered 5000-6999 may be taken for undergraduate credit unless specifically restricted to graduate students as indicated by individual course limitations. It is the responsibility of graduate students taking 5000-6999 level courses for credit accrual to a graduate degree to inform the instructor of their status, and to assume that graduate level course work will be expected of them. For interpretation of numbering system, signs and abbreviations, see Signs and Abbreviations.

ENG 5010 Advanced Expository Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced study and practice in various forms of expository prose, especially the essay. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly. Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5020 Topics in Media and Modern Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Topics may include: history of television, the internet, video games, other visual media; topics announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing. Course Material Fees: $20

ENG 5030 Topics in Women's Studies (GSW 5030) Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Thematic, critical or generic study of women and literature. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly. Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5035 Topics in Gender and Sexuality Studies (GSW 5035) Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Advanced course on issues of sexuality and gender as mediated through literary and cultural study. Attention to critical theory as well as various literary and cultural forms. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly. Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5040 Film Criticism and Theory Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3)
Survey of the major film theories from Munsterberg to contemporary film semiotics; examination of various attempts made at a systematic understanding of the cinema. Offered Yearly. Course Material Fees: $20 Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5050 Historical Topics in Film and Media Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 12)
Specialized, in-depth topics in film cycles and movements of a historical nature, such as French new wave, film noir, etc. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually. Course Material Fees: $20
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5060 Styles and Genres in Film Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 12)
Study of significant works within selected genres, such as the western, horror, comedy, animation. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly. Course Material Fees: $20.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5065 Identity and Difference in Media Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3)
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5070 Topics in Film and Media Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 12)
Critical and theoretical topics including style and work of specific filmmakers and philosophical approaches to film and other media. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly. Course Material Fees: $20
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5075 Topics in New Media Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Advanced course on the expressive forms of new media. Attention to recent work in humanities computing, digital humanities, and/or new media studies. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5080 Topics in Global and Transnational Studies Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Study of literature and culture from a global and/or transnational perspective. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5090 Topics in Literary and Cultural Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Study of literary and cultural theory in various contexts -- urban, metropolitan, ethnic, global -- with reference to primary texts. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5095 Topics in Visual Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Advanced course in visual culture and its theory, and in the practice of reading images in a variety of literary and visual forms. Topics to be announced in the schedule of classes. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5110 Chaucer Cr. 3
Readings from The Canterbury Tales and from Chaucer's other works in their cultural context. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5120 Topics in Medieval Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Themes, genres, writers in English and continental Medieval literature. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5150 Shakespeare Cr. 3
For English majors and others interested in more intensive study. Some attention to Shakespearean scholarship. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5170 Literature of the English Renaissance: 1500-1660 Cr. 3
Survey of literature in all genres from Skelton through Milton, with an emphasis on non-dramatic poetry and prose. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5180 Milton Cr. 3
Emphasis on Milton’s major poetry with attention to his prose and to historical background. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5190 Topics in Renaissance Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Studies of particular authors or groups of authors from 1500-1660 or of literary works from period, generic, thematic or methodological focuses. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5200 Restoration and Eighteenth Century Literature Cr. 3
A survey of English literature from 1660 to 1800. Readings from authors such as John Dryden, Aphra Behn, Mary Astell, Alexander Pope, Lady Mary Montagu, Jonathan Swift. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5240 Topics in Restoration and Eighteenth Century Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Special topics for detailed study of a genre, movement or author to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5260 Literature of the Romantic Period Cr. 3
A survey of English literature from 1789-1832. Emphasis on the major poets (Blake, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Keats, Shelley and Byron), with some attention to the major essayists (De Quincey, Hazlitt and Lamb) and novelists (Austen and Scott). Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5270 Literature of the Victorian Period Cr. 3
A survey of English literature from 1832-1901. Emphasis on major poets (Tennyson, Arnold, Swinburne), novelists (Dickens, Eliot, Hardy), and prose writers (Carlyle and Ruskin). Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5290 Topics in Nineteenth Century Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Readings emphasize thematic, generic, historic or aesthetic concerns in literature of the period. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5300 Twentieth Century British Literature Cr. 3
Selected works in all genres from 1900 to the present. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5320 Topics in Twentieth Century British Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Selected writers, themes, genres, or movements, such as Eliot, Auden, Shaw, Lawrence, the modern novel, Bloomsbury, The Great War, the Thirties. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5410 American Literature: 1800-1865 Cr. 3
Survey of writers, themes and movements which have had dramatic influence in defining American culture. Writers such as Dickinson, Douglass and Emerson, and literary movements like Transcendentalism and Romanticism are studied as well as the forces that produced them, especially race, class and gender. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5420 American Literature: 1865-1914 Cr. 3
Survey of important literary texts that arose from cultural phenomena like post-reconstruction, urbanization, immigration, the suffrage movement, and native rights. Literary movements like Realism and Naturalism will be studied as well as influential writers such as Cahan, Chopin, Dreiser and Dunbar. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5450 Modern American Literature Cr. 3
Survey of culturally-significant writers, themes and movements since 1914, such as: the Harlem Renaissance, Modernism, Postmodernism; authors like Ellison, Hemingway, Morrison, Stein. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5460 Topics in American Literature of the Twentieth Century Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Twentieth century literature from specific perspectives, such as generic, historical, thematic. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5480 Topics in African American Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Thematic, generic or historical perspectives: topics such as early black writers, Harlem Renaissance, African-American poetry, contemporary black writers. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5490 Topics in American Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Thematic, generic, or historical perspectives; may cover writers of different periods. Topics such as American humor, the theme of work, Southern literature, the city in literature. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5500 Topics in English and American Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Generic, historical or thematic perspectives. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5510 Major Authors Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Advanced study of one author, a pair of related authors, or a coterie of authors. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5520 Irish Literature Cr. 3
Major twentieth century Irish writers in the context of Irish history and politics, such as W.B. Yeats, James Joyce, major dramatists. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5565 Postmodernism Cr. 3
Advanced study of postmodern literature and culture, with attention to its international development and to critical theory. Possible authors: Beckett, Calvino, Nabokov, Acker, DeLillo, Pynchon. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5590 Topics in Comparative Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
The study of literary texts from an international point of view. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5595 World Literature in English Cr. 3
Advanced course in the study of literatures written in English beyond the United States and Great Britain. Attention to globalization, post-colonialism, and transnationalism. Authors may include: Rushdie, Coetzee, Kincaid, Kureishi, Ondaatje, Achebe, and Gordimer. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5680 Children's Literature Cr. 3
Study of children's literature from a literary perspective. Attention to the place of children's literature in literary history, its relationship to canonical literary works, and the development of its specific literary forms and genres. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5690 History and Future of the Book Cr. 3
Study of significant moments in the history of reading, writing, and the production and dissemination of texts. Attention to orality and literacy, authorship and originality, publishing and economics, as well as writing technologies past and present. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5695 Topics in Writing and Publishing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Study of recent trends and issues within the publishing industry, textual editing, scholarly publishing, print and electronic publication formats, and history and future of publishing. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5700 Introduction to Linguistic Theory (LIN 5700) Cr. 3
Introduction to the scientific study of language and methodologies of linguistic analysis: phonetics and phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics. Offered yearly.

ENG 5710 Phonology (LIN 5290) Cr. 3
The sound systems of a variety of human languages compared and contrasted in an introduction to the diversity and similarities in human sound systems. Theories of the nature of sound systems and methods of analysis in phonology and morphophonology will be presented. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: LIN 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 2720 with a minimum grade of D-

ENG 5715 Morphology (LIN 5715) Cr. 3
Morphology is a core area of Linguistics. The course will introduce the basic issues in the study of the internal structure of words, as well as the analytical techniques applied to morphological analysis. Students will learn how to analyze words of various (Indo-European and non-Indo-European) languages into morphemes, as well as to recognize morphological patterns and to utilize theoretical concepts in order to describe and analyze such patterns. In particular, the course will develop a theory of morphology in generative grammar, paying special attention to the question of whether particular morphological phenomena are primarily syntactic or primarily phonological in nature. Offered Fall.
Prerequisites: ENG 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 5700 with a minimum grade of D-
ENG 5720 Linguistics and Education (LIN 5720) Cr. 3
Introduction to linguistics with emphasis on applications to education. Offered Yearly.

ENG 5730 English Grammar (LIN 5730) Cr. 3
Comprehensive analysis of English sentence structure and parts of speech using the terminology and descriptive approach of traditional grammar. Offered Yearly.

ENG 5740 Syntax (LIN 5300) Cr. 3
The theory of grammatical systems examined through analysis of sentence formation in a variety of human languages, diversity and universals in grammar, and theories of syntax. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: LIN 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 2720 with a minimum grade of D-

ENG 5745 Semantics (LIN 5745) Cr. 3
Semantics is a core area of Linguistics. This course investigates meaning in natural language. It examines two foundational assumptions of natural language semantics: (i) that the meaning of a declarative sentence is its truth conditions and (ii) that the truth conditions of an expression are determined compositionally (that is, they are determined as a function of its parts and how they are put together). Students will then learn to distinguish between the entailments, implicatures, and presuppositions of an expression, where only the first are part of the expression’s truth conditions. Offered Winter.
Prerequisites: ENG 5700 with a minimum grade of D- or ENG 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 2720 with a minimum grade of D- or LIN 5700 with a minimum grade of D-

ENG 5750 Theories of Second Language Acquisition (LGL 5750, LIN 5750) Cr. 3
The complex processes involved in learning a foreign/second language, including the nature of inter language and the individual and collective factors influencing learner success and the effectiveness of instruction. Offered Yearly.

ENG 5760 American Dialects (LIN 5760) Cr. 3
Survey of chief social and geographic dialects of American English and introduction to theory of language variation. Offered Irregularly.

ENG 5770 Sociolinguistics (LIN 5770) Cr. 3
Identification of sociolinguistic principles used by English speakers and writers in choosing among the different English codes, styles, registers and social dialects in American and other communities. Offered Biannually.
ENG 5785 Academic Writing for Graduate Students (GS 5785) Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Emphasis on learning and executing written genres common to research and presentation activities in graduate school. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 5790 Writing Theory Cr. 3
Review of linguistic, rhetorical, and/or literary theories of written language. Analysis of the principles, purposes, types, and modes of written discourse. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5795 Topics in Rhetoric and Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Advanced course in rhetoric and writing. Attention to recent work in composition studies, rhetorical theory, and writing. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5820 Internship Practicum Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Students work 8-20 hours per week as tutors, writers, editors or researchers in publishing firms, businesses, government, and community organizations. Classroom sessions focus on reading and writing analytical texts related to workplace experience, and creating a portfolio of works created from the internship. Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5830 Introduction to Technical and Professional Writing Practices Cr. 3
Intensive writing course that develops communication skills used in the workplace. Designed for students preparing to become technical writers/editors and students who will write as part of their professional work. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 5840 Theoretical Approaches to Technical and Professional Writing Cr. 3
Survey of the theory and practice of technical and professional communication. Topics include the rhetoric and teaching of technical communication, analysis of on-the-job writing and rhetorical situations, and use of new communications technology. Some technical report writing, a research paper, and extensive reading and writing. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 5850 Introduction to Scholarly Writing for Non-native English Speakers
Cr. 2
Intensive practice in writing at the graduate level for non-native speakers of English. Offered Fall, Winter.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 5860 Topics in Creative Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Topics include new genres, new media, and writing for public audiences. Models drawn from works written in diverse communities and cultures. Frequent individual conferences. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement, or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5870 Poetry Writing Workshop Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
The writing of poetry, conducted on a seminar basis; discussion and criticism of the work of students in the course. Frequent individual conferences. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement, or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5880 Fiction Writing Workshop Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
The writing of fiction, conducted on a seminar basis; discussion and criticism of the work of students in the course. Frequent individual conferences. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement, or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5885 Topics in Creative Non-Fiction Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Study and practice of hybrid forms that blend reportage and imaginative writing. Attention to essays, memoir, and personal writing. Frequent individual conferences. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement, or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5890 Writing for Theatre Cr. 3 (THR 5725) (Max. 6)
Advanced study, in a workshop setting, of dramatic structure and writing for the theatre, terminating in the writing of an original stage play. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement, or ENG 3800 with a minimum grade of B, or graduate standing.

ENG 5990 Directed Study in English Cr. 1-3 (Max. 6)
Advanced work for superior students whose program cannot be adequately met by scheduled classes. Course requires substantial written work. Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
ENG 6001 Pedagogical Practicum I Cr. 3
Instruction and resources to prepare newly-appointed graduate teaching assistants for teaching in the Wayne State composition program. Offered for graduate credit only. Offered Fall.
Prerequisite: enrollment in the Department of English and graduate standing.

ENG 6002 Teaching of Literary and Cultural Studies Cr. 3
Instruction in the teaching of literary and cultural studies through both individualized and group training. Offered for graduate credit only. Offered Fall, Winter.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 6004 Pedagogical Practicum II Cr. 3
Instruction and resources to support graduate teaching assistants during their first semester teaching in the Wayne State Composition Program. Offered for graduate credit only. Offered Fall.
Prerequisite: ENG 6001 with a minimum grade of B-, enrollment in the Department of English, and graduate standing.

ENG 6005 Teaching Developmental Writing Cr. 3
Emphasis on researching pedagogical strategies to develop course materials for the teaching of a developmental writing class. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.

ENG 6010 Tutoring Practicum Cr. 3
Integration of theories of language, learning and composition into a teaching practicum for prospective teachers at the secondary level and beyond. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of General Education IC requirement or graduate standing.
Restriction(s): Enrollment limited to students with a class of Applicant Masters, Junior, Senior or Post Bachelor.

ENG 6720 Topics in Language Cr. 3 (ENG 5720, LIN 6720)(Max. 12)
Topics such as: pragmatics, historical linguistics, history of English, language and gender, language and variation, language and evolution. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly.

ENG 6800 Advanced Creative Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Writing in any of the creative forms. Work by students presented in seminar meetings; frequent individual conferences. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 7001 Issues in Critical Theory Cr. 3
Training in fundamental critical and professional issues through reading and writing about problems, issues and texts central to English studies. Offered Fall. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7002 History of Critical Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Instruction in the history of critical theory through examination of critical and/or representative texts in that history. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7003 Contemporary Literary Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
In-depth reading of and education in contemporary literary works that are important to the discipline of English studies. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7004 Theoretical Issues in Cultural Studies Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Intensive reading in and writing about central theoretical issues in cultural studies. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7005 Film Theory Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 8)
Basic knowledge of film theory; especially for students who will have a concentration in film and media studies. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7006 Media Theory Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 8)
Important issues and theories in media studies. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7007 Composition Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Seminar on such topics as: the writing process, computers in composition, theory of basic writing, theory of technical/professional writing. Offered Yearly. Prerequisite: graduate level standing.

ENG 7011 Studies in Medieval Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Selected topics such as: Arthurian legend, the alliterative revival, problems in Chaucer criticism. Offered Irregularly. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7012 Sixteenth-Century Literature Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Readings in representative works in literature in English of the 16th century. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 7014 Seventeenth-Century Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Reading and writing about representative texts of 17th century literature in English. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7015 Studies in Shakespeare Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Special problems in current scholarship and criticism. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7016 English Drama from the Medieval Cycle Plays to 1642 Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of representative English dramas from the medieval period to mid-seventeenth century. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7021 Studies in Restoration and Eighteenth Century Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies of particular authors or genres. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7022 Studies in Romantic Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Topics such as Wordsworth and Coleridge, crisis and triumph of the romantic imagination. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7023 Studies in Victorian Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Poetry, non-fictional prose, drama, fiction. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7024 The Rise of the Novel Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Tracing the development of the novel. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7025 Fin de Siecle Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies in turn of the century literature and culture. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7031 Naturalism and Realism Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
In-depth study of naturalist and realist writings, and of naturalism and realism as categories of classification. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7032 Modernism and Modernity Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies in modernism as a literary and cultural movement and/or in modernity as a social, economic and cultural formation. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 7033 Postmodernism and Postmodernity Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies in postmodernism as a literary and cultural movement and/or in postmodernity as a social, economic and cultural formation. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7035 Cyberculture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies in cyberculture as a literary and cultural movement. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7041 Early American Literatures and Cultures Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Studies in the literatures and cultures of the Americas from their beginnings to and/or into the nineteenth century. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7042 Nineteenth-Century American Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced study of such topics as Puritanism, Transcendentalism, Fugitive Slave Narratives and Indian Captivity Narratives as evidenced in such authors as Dickinson, Douglass, Franklin, Hawthorne, Hutchinson, Jacobs, Whitman. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7043 Twentieth-Century American Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced study of literary representations of crucial cultural issues as demonstrated among writers, movements, and selected texts. Possible writers include T.S. Eliot, Toni Morrison, Gertrude Stein; movements like Modernism and Postmodernism, and cultural phenomena like assimilation and reification may be treated. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7044 African-American Literature and Culture Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced study of topics in African-American literature. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7045 Ethnic American Literatures and Cultures Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Study of the varieties of ethnic literature and culture in the Americas. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7046 Comparative American Literatures and Cultures Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Study of the literatures and cultures of the Americas from a comparative perspective. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 7051 Introduction to Film and Media Studies Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 8)
Historical and theoretical introduction to film and media studies. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7053 Film and Media Genres Cr. 4 (LAB: 3; LCT: 3) (Max. 8)
Survey of the genres of film and media studies. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7056 Comparative Media Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Instruction in media from a comparative perspective, including but not limited to film, digital, visual, and auditory media. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7061 Rhetorical Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of major rhetorical theories. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7062 Designing Research in Composition and Rhetoric Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of major research methodologies in rhetoric and composition. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7063 Historical Studies in Composition and Rhetoric Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of historical approaches to rhetoric and composition. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7064 The Teaching of Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of major pedagogical theories in composition studies. Offered Yearly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7065 Writing Technologies Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Study of rhetorical and pedagogical issues related to writing and technology. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7066 Writing in Multiple Settings Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of research into writing in specific settings such as urban and/or rural sites, workplaces, communities and organizations, or classrooms. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7710 Advanced Studies in Linguistic Structure Cr. 3 (LIN 7710) (Max. 9)
Current issues in linguistic theory, including but not limited to topics in phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 7720 Advanced Studies in Language Use Cr. 3 (LIN 7720) (Max. 9)
Current problems in language use, including issues in language variation, pidgins and creoles, first language acquisition, perception and production, and linguistic stylistics. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Irregularly. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7770 Discourse Analysis Cr. 3 (LIN 7770) (Max. 9)
Analysis of inter-sentential relationships and of larger patterns. Implied and actual exchanges. Information ordering. Multi-level and intersectional analysis of expository prose. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 7800 Seminar in Creative Writing Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Intensive advanced study in creative writing and/or relevant critical theory. Topics such as: Writing the Novel, Narrative Perspective, Creative Text and Reader Response, to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Yearly. Prerequisite: graduate level standing

ENG 7840 Technical and Professional Communication Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Survey of contemporary research in technical and professional communication. Offered Biannually. Prerequisite: graduate level standing

ENG 7990 Directed Study in English Cr. 1-8 (Max. 8)
Advanced work for English majors whose program of study cannot be adequately met by scheduled classes. Offered Every Term. Prerequisite: graduate level standing

ENG 7999 Master’s Essay Direction Cr. 1-3
Offered Every Term. Prerequisite: graduate level students with a class of Candidate Masters.

ENG 8001 Seminar in Literary and Cultural Studies Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in literary and cultural studies. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8002 Seminar in Literary and Cultural Studies Before 1700 Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in literary and cultural studies before 1700. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually. Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 8003 Seminar in Literary and Cultural Studies: 1660-1914 Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in literary and cultural studies between 1660 and 1914. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8004 Seminar in Literary and Cultural Studies After 1870 Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in literary and cultural studies after 1870. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8005 Seminar in American Literatures and Cultures Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in American literatures and cultures. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8006 Seminar in Film and Media Studies Cr. 4 (Max. 8)
Advanced special topics in film and media studies. Topics to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8007 Seminar in Rhetoric and Composition Studies Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in rhetoric and composition studies to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8008 Seminar in Theory Cr. 3 (Max. 6)
Advanced special topics in theory to be announced in Schedule of Classes. Offered Biannually.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8998 Prospectus and Dissertation Chapter Workshop Cr. 3 (Max. 9)
Intensive workshop in creating a dissertation prospectus and/or dissertation chapter. Attention to invention, development, peer support, and developing material for academic publishing audiences. Offered Winter.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 8999 Master's Thesis Research and Direction Cr. 1-6 (Max. 6)
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level students with a class of Candidate Masters.

ENG 9990 Pre-Doctoral Candidacy Research Cr. 1-8 (Max. 12)
Research in preparation for doctoral dissertation. Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.
ENG 9991 Doctoral Candidate Status I: Dissertation Research and Direction Cr. 7.5
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing.

ENG 9992 Doctoral Candidate Status II: Dissertation Research and Direction Cr. 7.5
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing and a minimum grade of S in 9991.

ENG 9993 Doctoral Candidate Status III: Dissertation Research and Direction Cr. 7.5
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing and a minimum grade of S in 9992.

ENG 9994 Doctoral Candidate Status IV: Dissertation Research and Direction Cr. 7.5
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing and a minimum grade of S in 9993.

ENG 9995 Candidate Maintenance Status: Doctoral Dissertation Research and Direction Cr. 0
Offered Every Term.
Prerequisites: graduate level standing and a minimum grade of S in 9994.
Course Material Fees: As published in the Schedule of Classes.
Repeatable for 0 Credits