The Department of Philosophy offers courses that develop practical communication, reasoning, creative thinking, and writing skills that are valuable in any career:

- Critical Thinking (PHI 1050)*
- Professional Ethics (PHI 1120)
- Contemporary Moral Issues (PHI 1110)
- Introduction to Philosophy (PHI 1010)

*Satisfies General Education Requirement in Critical Thinking (CT)
Satisfies General Education Requirement in Philosophy & Letters (PL)

CONSIDER A MAJOR, DOUBLE-MAJOR, OR MINOR IN PHILOSOPHY
VISIT OUR WEBSITE: http://clasweb.clas.wayne.edu/Philosophy

Philosophy by the NUMBER$:

- Philosophy majors have the 4th highest average score of ANY major on the GMATs, which is higher than majors in Business, Economics, Finance, Marketing, or Management.
- The current mid-career median salary for Philosophy majors is $81,200 (the highest of any Humanities major, and higher than Business majors).