The Philosophy Department at Wayne State offers critical reasoning courses that are especially pertinent to LSAT and law school preparation, as well as a variety of courses related to legal theory, issues, and practice:

- Introductory Symbolic Logic (PHI 1850)
- Critical Thinking (PHI 1050)*
- Foundations of Law (PHI 3270)
- Philosophy of Law (PHI 5270)
- Professional Ethics (PHI 1120)
- Contemporary Moral Issues (PHI 1100)

* Satisfies General Education requirement in Critical Thinking (CT)
 Satisfies the General Education Requirement in Philosophy and Letters (PL)

FIND OUT ABOUT OUR MAJOR AND MINOR PROGRAMS
See our website at http://clasweb.clas.wayne.edu/Philosophy for more information.

Did You Know?

- Philosophy majors average:
  - The 2nd highest scores of ANY major on the LSATs
  - The highest scores of any major on the Analytical Writing Section of the GREs
  - The highest scores of any major on the Verbal Section of the GREs