Bachelor of Science Requirements

Department of Psychology

In order to earn a Bachelor of Science (BS) in Psychology, students must successfully complete 27 credit hours of non-psychology science coursework in addition to their major requirements. All science courses must be 1000-level or above.

The list of acceptable courses and exceptions are below:

- Anthropology (ANT)- only ANT 2110
- Astronomy (AST)- all
- Biology (BIO)- all
- Chemistry (CHM)- all
- Computer Science (CSC)- all
- Geology (GEL)- all
- Mathematics (MAT)- must be 1500-level or higher
- Nutrition and Food Science (NFS)- only NFS 2030 and/or NFS 3230
- Philosophy (PHI)- only PHI 2850 (previously PHI 1850)
- Physics (PHY)- all
- Speech-Language Pathology (SLP)- only SLP 5080 and/or 5090
- Statistics (STA)- only STA 1020