2017 Lucille Makarov Memorial Scholarship
Call for Applications

This scholarship is provided by Lucille Makarov who, at the age of 84, expressed a deep gratitude to the Wayne State University Department of Sociology for her B.A. degree earned in 1953, which had enabled her to have a thirty-year career at General Motors as a research librarian. This $4,500 scholarship fund is established to recognize scholastic achievement, encourage continued progress, and provide assistance to students in financing their education in the Department of Sociology.

Eligibility: Undergraduate students majoring in Sociology with Sophomore or Junior status are eligible for the scholarship. Students must have an overall GPA of at least 3.0 and a GPA in Sociology of at least 3.3 and demonstrate financial need.

To apply, students should write a letter outlining recent academic achievements, financial need, and any additional reasons why they should be considered for this award. Along with this letter, students should also submit a student copy of their transcript.

Completed applications and any inquiries should be directed to Dr. David M. Merolla, Director of Undergraduate Studies, dmerolla@wayne.edu. Please put “Sociology Department Award” in the subject line of your email. The deadline for completed applications is April 1, 2017. The winner will be presented the award at the annual Student Research and Award Day on Thursday, April 20, 2017.

Students applying for multiple awards should submit a single application; please note in your application letter which awards you are applying for.
