Providing and supporting Chinese language and cultural programs in southeastern Michigan

CLAM: Chinese Language Association of Michigan

An annual conference for K-16 educators and advocates of Chinese language and culture. Participants share practical ideas about teaching, learning, classroom management, and program development.
Offering Chinese Language and Cultural Programs in Southeast Michigan

K-12 Programs

K-12 Outreach
Volunteers from Wayne State University visit area K-12 schools, providing supplemental instruction and activities.

China Corps Summer Camps
Two-to-three weeks of Chinese language and cultural activities for middle and high school students. Camps offered at locations in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties.

High School Summer Camp in China
Selected students enjoy two weeks of sightseeing and studying Chinese language and culture in China. Students pay for only airfare and visa.

Michigan China Quiz Bowl
A quiz bowl competition testing middle and high school students on their knowledge of Chinese language and culture.

University Programs

Study Abroad Opportunities in China
Semester and year-long programs at Huazhong University of Science and Technology in Wuhan, China. Scholarships available.

“Learn a Chinese Phrase” Videos
A series of short Chinese language videos designed to teach fun and interesting phrases. Videos are available on the WSU-CI web page. On YouTube search for “Learn a Chinese Phrase.” Mobile application available!

Chinese Learning Community
A one-credit experiential learning course where students attend Chinese cultural events and study sessions.

Summer Service Learning in China
A poverty alleviation program where WSU students join Chinese university students to teach English in rural China.

China Corner
Chinese language tutorials M-W from 3-5 p.m. for WSU community members.

AIM HIGHER
Learn A Chinese Phrase
Confucius Institute at Wayne State University
clas.wayne.edu/ci