Guidelines for the 2018-2019 Slavic Scholarship Application

Eligibility: You must meet both of the criteria below in order to be eligible for a Slavic Scholarship. Otherwise your application will not be considered.

1) You must have declared a Slavic major, or a Polish or a Russian minor, or applied for a qualifying study abroad program before you submit this form;

AND

2) You must take at least one Polish, Russian or Slavic course in the Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures, and Cultures in Spring-Summer or Fall 2018.

The committee will look especially favorably on the applications of students who have participated in and/or helped out with the Polish Culture Club, Slavic Klub or departmental activities.

Application Deadline: March 20, 2018, 5:00 pm
Please submit your application in hard copy directly to Prof. Kenneth Brostrom, Dr. Alina Klin or Dr. Laura Kline. You can also leave your application for us at the main office in Manoogian 487.

Required Materials:
- Transcript (it doesn’t have to be an official copy).
- Application Form.

Optional Additional Submission: You may submit a typed statement indicating that you are in need of financial support in order to continue work on your Slavic major or Polish or Russian minor, or for study abroad. Students with special financial circumstances will be given additional consideration for the scholarship, although scholarship awards will not be made on the basis of financial need alone; they will be made primarily on the basis of academic performance.
Slavic Scholarship Application
For the 2018-2019 Academic Year

1. Name: ________________________
2. Address: ________________________
3. Tel: ________________________
4. E-mail: ________________________
5. Student ID: ________________________
6. Majors/Minors
   a. Slavic Majors: circle your concentration: Polish    Russian
   b. Others: indicate your major: ________________________
7. When do you expect to graduate? ________________________
8. List the classes you need to take to complete your Slavic major, or Polish or Russian minor:
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________
9. (If applicable) Provide the name of the study abroad program you are participating in:
   ____________________________________________
10. Indicate the Polish, Russian or Slavic course(s) you will take in 2018 in the WSU Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures, and Cultures:
    ____________________________________________
    ____________________________________________
    ____________________________________________
Slavic Scholarship Application
For the 2018-2019 Academic Year

11. Briefly tell us about your academic interests and plans for the future:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

I affirm that the information provided in this application is true.

__________________________________________
Signature

__________________________________________
Date